PARENT OBLIGATIONS (FOR TWO/THREE'S AND PRE-K CLASSES)

1. Participate (supervising children, setting up activities, cleaning up) in your child's class two times per month for TTH program, and/or three times per month for the MWF program, plus one standby shift every four weeks, per child. If you have 2 children, your commitment will be about 1.5x, depending on total number of children and working parents.
2. Attend monthly adult education meetings (General Meetings) with the entire school. These Meetings are 2 hours (usually 6:30 - 8:30 PM TBD), and must be made up if missed. The meetings dates are determined at the beginning of the school year.
3. Perform a year-long school job as part of a committee. The school job typically takes about 4 - 6 hours per month. Board positions assume more responsibility and will take more hours per month, depending on the position.
4. Participate in one 4-hour Saturday Maintenance Day per school year.
5. Participate in one 4-hour Safety Day per school year.
6. Participate in required fundraising activities which are expected to include the following for 2010-2011:
  - Participation in Halloween Boo Bash Fundraiser
  - Raffle Ticket Sales for Flea Market Fundraiser or $200 buy-out
  - Raise $100 through Flea Market fundraiser or $100 buy-out
  - Scrip program participation of $700 annually (or opt-out for $70 flat fee)
7. Read and understand the Parent Education Handbook.

The following will be required to begin the school year for Three's and Pre-K:

- A Child's Physician Report (including immunization record)
- A negative TB test and Fingerprint form for the participating parents

I have read and understand the above fees and obligations.
